

TC Local 1976 USW Newsletter

NOWU is out!

- Long ago, NOWU's lies and feeble promises became clear to more and more Canpar employees.
- And it took a while, but the tiny Toronto hospital union finally got the message that its support was weak.
- On November 16, NOWU's Treasurer wrote to the federal labour board to withdraw its application.
- Thank you for supporting your union – TC Local 1976 USW!

New USW Local 1976 contract

- Your new collective agreement is now in effect, including wage increases, an improved insurance plan for owner operators of only $25 and hassle-free prescription drug cards for all benefit plan members (effective January 1, 2021), among other improvements.

Most Members Are Now Receiving Email and Text Updates

There has been a great increase in sharing information within our Local by email and text messaging. It's great to see so many members engaged.

Sign up to win an iPad!

To encourage more members to sign up, we will have a draw for two iPads on December 21. All those who have already signed up for text or email communications from the Local and everyone who signs up between now and December 20 will be entered into the draw.

Winners will be announced on our website on December 21 at: <https://1976usw.ca/canpar> Stay tuned!
